

You've Been Elfed!

Now I see that you have found the little elf has come to town. Please keep the holiday cheer going by following the steps below:

1. Enjoy the treats or small gift!
2. Place one of the "I've Been Elfed" signs somewhere visible within your workspace.
3. Within two work days create a copy of this card to pass on. Then put together some treats, or a small gift.
4. Secretly "Elf" a coworker that has not been "Elfed" yet.

Happy Holidays!
